Importing References to Endnote from online databases

www.sciencedirect.com and Medline (Abstract Database in Sciencedirect)

1. Perform search
2. Tick articles to download
3. Select "Export Citations"
4. In the export window (Figure 1), select "Citations" from the Export drop down menu, select "RIS format" from the File Format drop down menu.
5. Click "Export" button
6. Select endnote library to add references to.

Figure 1: Science Direct export window

www.ieeexplore.ieee.org

1. Perform search
2. Select "Abstract" of paper you want.
3. Select "Download Citation".
4. In the Citation Download window (Figure 2), select "Citation" from the Download drop down menu and "ISI Research Soft ……" from the File Format drop down menu.
5. Click "Download" button.
6. Select endnote library to add references to.

Figure 3: IEEExplore Citation Download window

http://edina.ac.uk/inspec

1. Perform search
2. Tick articles to download
3. Select "Citation manager" link
4. In the Citation Manager table (Figure 3)
   - Under "citations" select "selected citations"
   - Under "fields" select "citation + abstract"
   - Under "citation format" select "direct export"
   - Under "action" select "save"

Figure 3: Citation Manager